

ARCA Sixth Annual Conference

Call for Presenters

Amelia, Italy

June 28-29, 2014

ARCA and the city of Amelia will be hosting its sixth-annual interdisciplinary conference this summer. The two-day conference aims to facilitate a critical appraisal of the protection of art and cultural heritage by bringing together academics, police, members of the art world, as well as the students in ARCA's postgraduate certificate program in Art Crime and Cultural Heritage Protection. The conference will be held in Amelia, Italy in the heart of Umbria. ARCA will present its annual Awards—chosen by ARCA's Trustees and past award winners—to honor outstanding scholars and professionals dedicated to the protection and recovery of cultural heritage.

Presenters

ARCA welcomes proposals from any relevant field, including law, policing, security, art history, conservation, archaeology, or criminology. To be considered as a presenter please submit both a concise 200 word abstract as well as a current Resume or CV by email to ARCA's Conference Organizer Dr. Derek Fincham at: Derek.fincham@artcrimeresearch.org by April 1. Presenters will be asked to limit their presentation to 20 minutes, and will be grouped together in panels organized thematically, which will allow time for brief questions from the audience at the conclusion of each panel. There are also plenty of opportunities for informal conversations at coffee breaks, a lunch on Saturday, and in the evenings.

Registration

To attend please email Dr. Fincham: Derek.fincham@artcrimeresearch.org . There will be a small fee for the reception, lunch and dinner. If you have any enquiry about the conference format, or transportation to or from Amelia, please get in touch.

We hope to see many of you in Amelia in June!
