

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Letter from the Editor	1
ACADEMIC ARTICLES
The Multifarious Nature of Art Forgery in France: Four Case Studies of Belle Époque Fakes and Forgeries Carolyn EmBree and David A. Scott	3
Rekindling the Flame: The Role of Hawaii's Museums in Resurrecting Hawaiian Identity Suzette D. Scotti	17
Analyzing Criminality in the Market for Ancient Near Eastern Art Ryan Casey	39
Damaging the Archaeological Record: The Lenborough Hoard David Gill	51
"But We Didn't Steal It:" Collectors' Justifications for Purchasing Looted Antiquities Erin L. Thompson	59
REGULAR COLUMNS
Lessons from the History of Art Crime "Napoleon: Emperor of Art Theft" Noah Charney	69
Context Matters "From Palmyra to Mayfair: The Movement of Antiquities from Syria and Northern Iraq" David Gill	73
Nekyia "Duplicates and the Antiquities Market" Christos Tsirogiannis	81
EDITORIAL ESSAYS
The Grape War of China: Wine Fraud and How Science is Fighting Back Toby Bull	89
New Archaeological Discoveries and Cultural Ventures beyond War Threats: A Model of Excellence Stemming from Iraqi-Italian Cooperation Francesca Coccolo	97
REVIEWS
Cultural Heritage Ethics: Between Theory and Practice Edited by Constantine Sandis Marc Balcells	99

America and the Return of Nazi Contraband: 101
The Recovery of Europe's Cultural Treasures
Michael J Kurtz
Kirsten Hower

The Napoleon of Crime: The Life and Times of Adam Worth 103
Ben Macintyre
Catherine Schofield Sezgin

EXTRAS

ARCA 2014 Award Winners 105

JAC Essay Collection 109

Acknowledgements 111

Contributor Biographies 113